

South Holland Food Festival 2011

Cookery tips, mouthwatering aromas, best of British produce

Food Festival..13th and 14th August– A fantastic weekend organised by Boston & South Lincolnshire College and the South Holland District Council. The Festival was attended by many members of the Community and Rachel Green showing us her talents and giving us some tips on how to cook with Lincolnshire produce, some provided by the stall holders attending the event.

Above are Rt Hon. John Hayes MP, Amanda Mosek, Principal of Boston College, Cllr & Mrs Mick Seymour all enjoying the produce from the Sage Restaurant, provided by the well organised students from South Lincs. College in the Red Lion Quarter. On the right Jan Whitbourn interviews Rachel Green Lincolnshire's Local Celebrity Chef.

The event was attended by Veterans represented by different organisations including members of the ex-servicemen's association and the Royal British Legion. A service was held after the march which filled the gardens and brought Ayscoughfee alive with members of the public singing hymns.

Town clean-up for Spalding in Bloom

On Sunday 10 July, a massive clean up took place in preparation for Spalding in Bloom. The Councillors did a great job at the Bull & Monkey site, then moving into the town, where many more volunteers added colour by bringing in bedding plants and hanging baskets.

Lanterns prize donation

The winning lantern in AlleyCatz charity lantern race, held earlier in the year, was won by Stephanie and David Sanderson of Revills Shoe Shop. The winners decided to donate their prize – free bowling for up to 80 people – to the Priory School.

In June Tulip Radio were on hand to capture the moment when Matt Flisher and James Holland of AlleyCatz joined Stephanie and David at Revills to present the prize to pupils of the Priory School.

Sophie Chambers, James Holland, Jan Whitbourn, Stephanie Sanderson, Mathew Flisher, Chris Lee and four pupils who collected the prize.

Classic Motorbike Show at Springfields Events Centre

The first Springfields Classic Motorbike Show was a response to popular demand. The auto jumble and dedicated show brought together the classic bike scene in the region and provided entertainment for all ages. World champion motorcyclist Phil Read was visiting fans as the show's special guest.

Terry Patey presented a live show and interviewed veteran biking champion Phil Reid and charity cyclist Mick Clarkson, who rode 100 miles to raise money for the British Heart Foundation in memory of his brother David.

Well done Julie Grant, winner of our Yorkshire Tea competition. Julie won The hamper by answering a simple quiz question, it had a selection of tea, tea towels, cups and much more.

Tulip Radio would like to thank Colin Ward, David Norton and Radio Caroline for tickets that we gave away for the ABBA tribute Band, Björn Again, Springfields' Motorbike Show, and Cambridge Rock Festival.

Summer 2011

Johnson Community Hospital Fête

This year's fete was very well attended and it was interesting to see Simon Temple rolling up his sleeves, washing as many cars as he could during the course of the afternoon. It was also good to see the Lions helping to raise money for good causes with their tombola stands. Chairman of the Council Michael & Mrs Seymour and Rt. Hon John Hayes MP came along to give their support.
